21 July 1913.			Visited this Church in company with the Rev ^d H. E. T. Croso, Rural Dean, and was met by the Churchwardens, as well as the Vicar, the Rev ^d J. M. Tampleik. The Church inside is in very good order and well furnished with all the necessaries of Divine Worship. The new Carpet in the Sanctuary is a great addition. The principal improvement, made since my last visit, is the re-hanging of the Bells and an addition of two new bells, in a steel frame, by Messrs. Tayler, of Loughborough. They were dedicated at a special service yesterday. The pointing of the Tower after repair of some of the tracery in the windows of the Tower is about to be undertaken. I congratulate the Vicar & Churchwardens on the successful completion of the Bells. H. Maxwell Spooner

Sept 4, 1918			I visited & inspected the Church & was met by the Vicar Rev J. M. Tappin, & Churchwarden Mr. J. Corbiter. The outside of the Church & tower is in excellent condition, a few scattered weeds on the tower must be watched. The interior is in a perfect state & there is every evidence of a long care & attention being paid to the sacred edifice. A new Communion Table has been provided & is awaiting a faculty. The old altar cloth was becoming worn out, & needed replacing. J. J. Easton, Rector Dean.
