Anno vicesimo sexto

Georgii II. Regis.

An Act for the better preventing of Clandestine Marriages.

WHEREAS great Mischiefs and Inconveniencies have arisen from Clandestine Marriages; for preventing thereof for the future, be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Twenty fifth Day of March, in the Year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and fifty four, all Banns of Matrimony shall be published in an audible Manner Preamble. Publication of Banns.

P296/1/9

Manner in the Parish Church, or in some Publick Chapel, in which Publick Chapel Banns of Matrimony have been usually published, of or belonging to such Parish or Chapelry wherein the Persons to be married shall dwell, according to the Form of Words prescribed by the Rubrick prefixed to the Office of Matrimony in the Book of Common Prayer, upon Three Sundays preceding the Solemnization of Marriage, during the Time of Morning Service, or of Evening Service, (if there be no Morning Service in such Church or Chapel) upon any of those Sundays, immediately after the Second Lesson: And whensoever it shall happen that the Persons to be married shall dwell in divers Parishes or Chapelries, the Banns shall in like Manner be published in the Church or Chapel, belonging to such Parish or Chapelry wherein each of the said Persons shall dwell; and where both or either of the Persons to be married shall dwell in any Extraparochial Place (having no Church or Chapel wherein Banns have been usually published) then the Banns shall in like Manner be published in the Parish Church or Chapel belonging to some Parish or Chapelry, adjoining to such Extraparochial Place: And where Banns shall be published in any Church or Chapel belonging to any Parish adjoining to such Extraparochial Place, the Parson, Vicar, Minister, or Curate, publishing such Banns, shall, in Writing under his Hand, certify the Publication thereof, in such Manner as if either of the Persons to be married dwelt in such adjoining Parish; and that all other the Rules prescribed by the said Rubrick concerning the Publication of Banns, and the Solemnization of Matrimony, and not hereby altered, shall be duly observed; and that in all Cases where Banns shall have been published, the Marriage shall be solemnized in one of the Parish Churches or Chapels where such Banns have been published, and in no other Place whatsoever.

Minister often the Publication thereof;

and the Marriage to be solemnized in one of the Churches where the Banns have been publish ed;

Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted, That no Parson, Vicar, Minister, or Curate, shall be obliged to publish the Banns of Matrimony between any Persons whatsoever, unless the Persons to be married shall, Seven Days at the least before the Time required for the first Publication of such Banns respectively, deliver, or cause to be delivered, to such Parson, Vicar, Minister, or Curate, a Notice in Writing of their true Christian and Surnames, and of the House or Houses of their respective Abodes within such Parish, Chapelry, or

Notice of the Names, Places of Abode, and Time of Residence, of the Parties, to be given to the Minister 7 Days before Publicati n of Banns.

Extraparochial Place as aforesaid, and of the Time during which they have dwelt, inhabited, or lodged in such House or Houses respectively.

Minister not punishable for solemnizing Marriage, after Banns published, where the Parents or Guardians give no Notice of Dissent;

Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Parson, Minister, Vicar, or Curate, solemnizing Marriages after the Twenty fifth Day of March, One thousand seven hundred and fifty four, between Persons, both or One of whom shall be under the Age of Twenty one Years, after Banns published, shall be punishable by Ecclesiastical Censures for solemnizing such Marriages without Consent of Parents or Guardians, whose Consent is required by Law, unless such Parson, Minister, Vicar, or Curate, shall have Notice of the Dissent of such Parents or Guardians; and in case such Parents or Guardians, or One of them, shall openly and publickly declare, or cause to be declared, in the Church or Chapel, where the Banns shall be so published, at the Time of such Publication, his, her, or their Dissent to such Marriage, such Publication of Banns shall be absolutely void.

but where such Dissent shall be given, Publication of Banns to be void.

Licences to be granted to solemnize Matrimony in the Church or Chapel of such Parish only, where One of the Parties shall have resided for 4 Weeks before, or in some Parish, Church adjoining, where the Parties live in Places Extraparochial.

And it is hereby further enacted, That no Licence of Marriage shall, from and after the said Twenty fifth Day of March, in the Year One thousand seven hundred and fifty four, be granted by any Archbishop, Bishop, or other Ordinary or Person having Authority to grant such Licences, to solemnize any Marriage in any other Church or Chapel, than in the Parish Church or Publick Chapel of or belonging to the Parish or Chapelry, within which the usual Place of Abode of One of the Persons to be married shall have been for the Space of Four Weeks, immediately before the granting of such Licence; or where both, or either of the Parties to be married, shall dwell in any Extraparochial Place, having no Church or Chapel wherein Banns have been usually published, then in the Parish Church or Chapel belonging to some Parish or Chapelry adjoining to such Extraparochial Place, and in no other Place whatsoever.

Places which may be deemed Extraparochial by this Act.

Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Parishes, where there shall be no Parish Church or Chapel belonging thereto, or none wherein Divine Service shall be usually celebrated every Sunday, may be deemed Extraparochial Places for the Purposes of this Act, but not for any other Purpose.

Archbishop of Canterbury's Right to grant Special Licences reserved.

Provided always, That nothing herein before contained shall be construed to extend to deprive the Archbishop of Canterbury and his Successors, and his and their proper Officers, of the Right which hath hitherto been used, in virtue of a certain Statute made in the Twenty fifth Year of the Reign of the late King Henry the Eighth, intituled, An Act concerning Peter Pence and Dispensations; of granting Special Licences to marry at any convenient Time or Place.

Surrogate deputed to grant Licences, to take an Oath of Office, and give Security.

Provided always, and be it enacted, That from and after the Twenty fifth Day of March, in the Year One thousand seven hundred and fifty four, no Surrogate deputed by any Ecclesiastical Judge, who hath Power to grant Licences of Marriage, shall grant any such Licence before he hath taken an Oath before the said Judge faithfully to execute his Office, according to Law, to the best of his Knowledge, and hath given Security by his Bond in the Sum of One hundred Pounds to the Bishop of the Diocese, for the due and faithful Execution of his said Office.

Persons convicted of solemnizing Matrimony, without Publication of Banns, or Licence first had, or in any other Place than a Church or Publick Chapel, except by Special Licence,

And whereas many Persons do solemnize Matrimony in Prisons and other Places, without Publication of Banns, or Licence of Marriage first had and obtained; Therefore, for the Prevention thereof, be it enacted, That if any Person shall, from and after the said Twenty fifth Day of March, in the Year One thousand seven hundred and fifty four, solemnize Matrimony in any other Place than a Church or Publick Chapel, where Banns have been usually published, unless by Special Licence from the Archbishop of Canterbury; or shall solemnize Matrimony without Publication of Banns, unless Licence of Marriage be first had and obtained from some Person or Persons having Authority to grant the same, every Person knowingly and wilfully so offending, and being lawfully convicted thereof, shall be deemed and adjudged to be guilty of Felony, and shall be transported to some of His Majesty's Plantations in America, for the Space of Fourteen Years, according to the Laws in Force for Transportation of Felons; and all Marriages solemnized from and after the Twenty fifth Day of March, in the Year One thousand seven hundred and fifty four, in any other Place than a Church or such Publick Chapel, unless by Special Licence as aforesaid, or that shall be solemnized without Publication of Banns, or Licence of Marriage from a Person or Persons having Authority to grant the same, first had and obtained, shall be null and void to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

to be transported,

and the said Marriages to be null.

Prosecution for the same to be commenced within 3 Years.

Provided, That all Prosecutions for such Felony shall be commenced within the Space of Three Years after the Offence committed.

Provided

Proof of the Parties Dwelling in the Parishes, &c. where Marriage shall have been solemnized, not necessary to the Validity of such Marriage.

Provided always, That after the Solemnization of any Marriage, under a Publication of Banns, it shall not be necessary in Support of such Marriage, to give any Proof of the actual Dwelling of the Parties in the respective Parishes or Chapelries wherein the Banns of Matrimony were published; or where the Marriage is by Licence, it shall not be necessary to give any Proof that the usual Place of Abode of One of the Parties, for the Space of Four Weeks as aforesaid, was in the Parish or Chapelry where the Marriage was solemnized; nor shall any Evidence in either of the said Cases be received to prove the contrary in any Suit touching the Validity of such Marriage.

Marriages solemnized by Licence, without Consent of the Parents or Guardians, where either of the Parties (not being a Widower or Widow) shall be under Age, declared to be void.

And it is hereby further enacted, That all Marriages solemnized by Licence, after the said Twenty fifth Day of March, One thousand seven hundred and fifty four, where either of the Parties, not being a Widower or Widow, shall be under the Age of Twenty one Years, which shall be had without the Consent of the Father of such of the Parties, if under Age (if then living) first had and obtained, or if dead, of the Guardian or Guardians of the Person of the Party so under Age, lawfully appointed, or One of them; and in case there shall be no such Guardian or Guardians, then of the Mother (if living and unmarried) or if there shall be no Mother living and unmarried, then of a Guardian or Guardians of the Person appointed by the Court of Chancery, shall be absolutely null and void to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

Where the Guardians or Mother shall be Non Compos Mentis, or in Parts beyond the Seas, or shall unreasonably with hold their Consent to a Marriage proposed,

And whereas it may happen, that the Guardian or Guardians, Mother or Mothers, of the Parties to be married, or One of them, so under Age as aforesaid, may be Non Compos Mentis, or may be in Parts beyond the Seas, or may be induced unreasonably, and by undue Motives to abuse the Trust reposed in him, her, or them, by refusing or with-holding his, her, or their Consent to a proper Marriage; be it therefore enacted, That in case any such Guardian or Guardians, Mother or Mothers, or any of them, whose Consent is made necessary as aforesaid, shall be Non Compos Mentis, or in Parts beyond the Seas, or shall refuse or with-hold his, her, or their Consent to the Marriage of any Person, it shall and may be lawful for any Person desirous of marrying, in any of the before-mentioned Cases, to apply by Petition to the Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper, or the Lords Commissioners of the Great Seal of Great Britain for the time being, who is and are hereby impowered to proceed upon such Petition, in a summary Way; and in the Parties may apply to the Lord Chancellor, &c.

and being approved by Order of the Court, shall be effectual.

case the Marriage proposed, shall upon Examination appear to be proper, the said Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper, or Lords Commissioners of the Great Seal for the time being, shall judicially declare the same to be so by an Order of Court, and such Order shall be deemed and taken to be as good and effectual to all Intents and Purposes, as if the Guardian or Guardians, or Mother of the Person so petitioning, had consented to such Marriage.

No Suit to be had in the Ecclesiastical Court, to compel a Marriage in facie Ecclesiæ, by reason of any Contract of Matrimony.

And it is hereby further enacted, That in no Case whatsoever, shall any Suit or Proceeding be had in any Ecclesiastical Court, in Order to compel a Celebration of any Marriage in facie Ecclesiæ, by reason of any Contract of Matrimony whatsoever, whether per verba de præsenti, or per verba de futuro, which shall be entered into after the Twenty fifth Day of March, in the Year One thousand seven hundred and fifty four; any Law or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

Churchwardens to provide proper Books, in which are to be registered all Marriages and Banns solemnized and published;

And for preventing undue Entries and Abuses in Registers of Marriages; be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That on or before the Twenty fifth Day of March, in the Year One thousand seven hundred and fifty four, and from time to time afterwards as there shall be Occasion, the Churchwardens and Chapelwardens of every Parish or Chapelry shall provide proper Books of Vellum, or good and durable Paper, in which all Marriages and Banns of Marriage respectively, there published or solemnized, shall be registered, and every Page thereof shall be marked at the Top, with the Figure of the Number of every such Page, beginning at the Second Leaf with Number One; and every Leaf or Page so numbered, shall be ruled with Lines at proper and equal Distances from each other, or as near as may be; and all Banns and Marriages published or celebrated in any Church or Chapel, or within any such Parish or Chapelry, shall be respectively entered, registered, printed, or written upon, or as near as conveniently may be to such ruled Lines, and shall be signed by the Parson, Vicar, Minister, or Curate, or by some other Person in his Presence, and by his Direction; and such Entries shall be made as aforesaid, on or near such Lines in successive Order where the Paper is not damaged or decayed by Accident or Length of Time, until a new Book shall be thought proper or necessary to be provided for the same Purposes, and then the Directions aforesaid shall be observed in every such new Book; and all Books provided as aforesaid, shall be deemed to belong to the same to be signed by the Minister;

and the Books to belong to the Parish, and to be kept for publick Use.

to every such Parish or Chapelry respectively, and shall be carefully kept and preserved for publick Use.

And in order to preserve the Evidence of Marriages, and to make the Proof thereof more certain and easy, and for the Direction of Ministers in the Celebration of Marriages and registering thereof, be it enacted, That from and after the Twenty fifth Day of March, in the Year One thousand seven hundred and fifty four, all Marriages shall be solemnized in the Presence of Two or more credible Witnesses, besides the Minister who shall celebrate the same; and that immediately after the Celebration of every Marriage, an Entry thereof shall be made in such Register to be kept as aforesaid; in which Entry or Register it shall be expressed, That the said Marriage was celebrated by Banns or Licence; and if both or either of the Parties married by Licence, be under Age, with Consent of the Parents or Guardians, as the Case shall be; and shall be signed by the Minister with his proper Addition, and also by the Parties married, and attested by such Two Witnesses; which Entry shall be made in the Form or to the Effect following; that is to say,

Marriage to be solemnized in the Presence of Two Witnesses, besides the Minister, and to be properly registered, and signed by the Minister, Parties, and Witnesses,

In Form, or to this Effect.

Persons convicted of making a false Entry in the said Register,

And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person shall, from and after the Twenty fifth Day of March, in the Year One thousand seven hundred and fifty four, with Intent to elude the Force of this Act, knowingly and wilfully insert, or cause to be inserted in the Register Book of such Parish or Chapelry as aforesaid, any false Entry of any Matter or Thing relating to any Marriage; or falsely make, alter, forge, or counterfeit, or cause or procure to be falsely made, altered, or of forging, &c. any such Entry,

P296/1/9

or assisting therein,

or of forging the Name of any Subscriber, or of publishing the same, knowing such Register or Licence to be false;

or of destroying with an ill Intent any such Register, altered, forged, or counterfeited, or act or assist in falsely making, altering, forging, or counterfeiting, any such Entry in such Register; or falsely make, alter, forge, or counterfeit, or cause or procure to be falsely made, altered, forged, or counterfeited, or assist in falsely making, altering, forging, or counterfeiting, any such Licence of Marriage as aforesaid; or utter or publish as true any such false, altered, forged, or counterfeited Register as aforesaid, or a Copy thereof, or any such false, altered, forged, or counterfeited Licence of Marriage, knowing such Register or Licence of Marriage respectively, to be false, altered, forged, or counterfeited; or if any Person shall, from and after the said Twenty fifth Day of March, wilfully destroy, or cause or procure to be destroyed, any Register Book of Marriages, or any Part of such Register Book, with Intent to avoid any Marriage, or to subject any Person to any of the Penalties of this Act, every Person so offending, and being thereof lawfully convicted, shall be deemed and adjudged to be guilty of Felony, and shall suffer Death as a Felon, without Benefit of Clergy.

are to suffer Death.

Marriages of the Royal Family,

Provided always, That this Act, or any thing therein contained, shall not extend to the Marriages of any of the Royal Family.

and of Quakers and Jews; and of Persons in Scotland, or beyond the Seas, excepted out of this Act, Provided likewise, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend to that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, nor to any Marriages amongst the People called Quakers, or amongst the Persons professing the Jewish Religion, where both the Parties to any such Marriage shall be of the People called Quakers, or Persons professing the Jewish Religion respectively; nor to any Marriages solemnized beyond the Seas.

This Act to be read in all Parish Churches and Publick Chapels.

And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this Act shall be publickly read in all Parish Churches and Publick Chapels, by the Parson, Vicar, Minister, or Curate of the respective Parishes or Chapelries, on some Sunday immediately after Morning Prayer, or immediately after Evening Prayer, if there shall be no Morning Service on that Day, in each of the Months of September, October, November, and December, in the year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and fifty three, and afterwards at the same Times, on Four several Sundays in each year (that is to say) the Sundays next before the Twenty fifth Day of March, Twenty fourth Day of June, Twenty ninth Day of September, and Twenty fifth Day of December respectively, for Two years, to be computed from and immediately after the First Day of January, in the said year One thousand seven hundred and fifty four.
